Then we will gladly talk to you and would like to discuss how a possible cooperation could be possible. All we want is a personal approach, an unbridled commitment and the ability to come up with solutions for our suppliers and customers. We don't offer 'No' as an answer; 'yes' is right around the corner. This way you can stay at the forefront with us.

THE COMPANY

Why do contacts see us as the partner in the international trade of piglets, pigs and cattle? Probably because in the past 40 years, we have learned that there is much more to it than cattle trade alone. It's a matter of quality and expertise. Customer focus. Knowledge of the market. An eye for animal welfare. And the will to create maximum value for our contacts, buyers and suppliers. That gives them confidence. The reason you see us everywhere. In Europe, and in the rest of the world.

Wherever we are, everywhere we are VAEX – The Livestock Traders
